RCC board will hear president's bond report

A bond report from college President Randy Weber tops the agenda of the Rogue Community College board meeting on Tuesday.

Other items on the agenda include the second and final reading of a $2-per-credit tuition increase, the school's first since 2020, and removal of the word "contract" from throughout the employee handbook.

The board will also go behind closed doors for an executive session on the topics of labor negotiations and real property transactions.

The meeting starts at 5 p.m. in Room A184 on the Table Rock Campus in White City.

It also will be livestreamed on Zoom, webinar ID 933 0075 1708.

Prior to the regular business meeting, the board will convene at 4 p.m. for a special meeting on the topic of "Mission fulfillment report and key performance indicators."
