

Home News ▾

Features ▾ Weather ▾

About ▾ News Tips

COZI TV ▾

Education Local

Special program for RCC students with Jacksonville Fire Dept

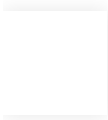

Newsroom Staff | May 21, 2025

f X p r e | Last Updated: May 21, 2025

SHARES

Jacksonville, Ore. – A cool opportunity is opening up for local college students.

Jacksonville Fire Department is hiring three Rogue Community College students for a two-year program starting this upcoming school year.

Student firefighters will work 48-hour shifts alongside the pros while attending classes at RCC. If selected, the department will cover up to $5,000 a year for gear and class expenses.

Those interested can apply at jacksonvilleor.us.

© 2025 KOB1-TV NBC5. All rights reserved unless otherwise stated.

Latest Stories

Butte Creek Fire burning in central Oregon grows to over 2,000 acres

May 26, 2025

- TAGS:
- # hiring
- # Jackson County
- # Jacksonville
- # Jacksonville Fire Department
- # rcc
- # Rogue Community College students
- # Student firefighters

SHARES

OD
mo

