Grants Pass Daily Courier

Wednesday, October 22nd, 2025

Klipfel's goal leads RCC past Chemeketa (RCC roundup)

Daily Courier

Hidden Valley grad Mason Klipfel's unassisted goal at the 59th minute was enough for Rogue Community College against a shorthanded Chemeketa squad in a 1-0 men's soccer win Saturday in Salem.

Klipfel scored the goal just 90 seconds after Chemeketa's Addison Samuell picked up his second yellow card and was bounced from the contest.

RCC held on despite being outshot 13-6, including an 11-3 margin in the first half.

Rogue clinched an NWAC playoff berth in moving to 8-1-1 overall and 6-1-1 in the NWAC South Region, tying the Ospreys with Lane atop the standings.

Chemeketa fell to 1-7-3, 0-5-3.

The Ospreys hosts Portland on Saturday at Lithia Fields in Medford.

Volleyball

RCC 3, CLARK COLLEGE 0. Rogue Community College remained unbeaten in NWAC South play, at 10-0, with a win against Clark College Saturday in Vancouver, Wash.

The Ospreys won 25-16, 25-15, 25-15.

Danica Becerril and Olivia Stubenrauch both had nine kills for the Ospreys, while Julia Brehm and Piper O'Farrell had eight apiece. O'Farrell also had 16 digs.

Clark fell to 7-16, 3-7.

RCC, now 18-4, hosts Chemeketa Friday and Clackamas Saturday at The Court House in Medford.

Women's soccer

UMPQUA 3, RCC 0. Merra Gulka scored in the first half and assisted on another tally in the second half for the Riverhawks in their shutout home win against Rogue Community College in a match played Saturday at Sutherlin High School.

Gulka, who played at Willamette, scored unassisted 13 minutes into the contest and assisted Savannah Sanders at the 53rd minute.

Freshman Siulose Jones scored off an assist from Katrina Beltran three minutes later.

Ospreys' goalkeeper Addison Vranes was able to stop 10 shots on goal in the contest.

Umpqua, which leads the NWAC South, improved to 10-2-1 overall and 8-1-1 in league.

The Ospreys (0-10-2, 0-8-2) play at Southwestern Oregon (0-11-2, 0-10-1) on Saturday.