Wheeler leads the way in win over SWOCC (RCC roundup)

Daily Courier

Freshman midfielder Ethan Wheeler scored twice and assisted on another goal, and freshman Micah Chung had a goal and an assist in Rogue Community College's 4-3 men's soccer victory against Southwestern Oregon Saturday at Lithia Fields in Medford.

Wheeler, from Bend, scored at the 20th and 50th minutes, and just after Southwestern's Jack Heneghan tied the match at 2-2 in the 53rd minute, Chung scored unassisted one minute later to give the lead back to the Ospreys.

A goal by another freshman Liam McGuire, gave the Ospreys some insurance. RCC (3-0-1, 2-0 NWAC South Region) outshot Southwestern Oregon (0-3-1, 0-1-1), 24-10.

The Ospreys play Chemeketa in Salem on Saturday.

Women's soccer

RCC 1, CHEMEKETA 1. A successful penalty kick by Danika Anderson at the 81st minute equaled the score for Rogue Community College in its match against Chemeketa, in a tie on Saturday at Lithia Fields in Medford.

Chemeketa had led ever since Taylor Vincent's goal at the 17th minute as it outshot RCC 15-4 for the match.

Rogue moved to 3-2-1, 2-1-1 in NWAC South Division play, while Chemeketa moved to 4-2-1, and tied with RCC in the South Division.

RCC heads to Roseburg to play Umpqua Community College Saturday.

Volleyball

BELLEVUE 3, RCC 0. Rogue Community College got swept at Bellevue 25-20, 25-19, 25-14 on Saturday.

Julia Brehm had six kills for the Ospreys, while Jamie Cabanas had 17 assists and Madisyn Dean had six digs.

Bellevue improved to 12-4.

The Ospreys (6-6) are on the road at Mount Hood and Clark College Friday and Saturday.
